Frause One of Washington's Fastest Growing Companies

SEATTLE (Oct. 19, 2009) – Frause, a Seattle-based full spectrum communications firm, has been named one of the fastest growing private companies in Washington State by the Puget Sound Business Journal. The firm, with offices in Seattle and Portland, offers a full range of communications services including public relations, public affairs, marketing and graphic design to clients in multiple industry sectors ranging from real estate and local government to hospitality and professional services.

“Being on the Fastest Growing Companies list is a bright spot in a year that has been tricky to predict,” said Bob Frause, founder and CEO of Frause. “I’m glad our team’s hard work has been recognized in this way. We’ve managed to navigate rough waters and maintain our unique team culture, to which our growth can surely be attributed.”

Ranked number 50 out of the 100 fastest growing companies, Frause’s revenue increased 80.8 percent from 2006 to 2008. The company added six employees during that time span.

This is the second consecutive year that Frause has been included on the list. “My hat’s off to the other companies on the list. It’s certainly encouraging to be among so many successful organizations in the Puget Sound area,” added Frause.
