Frause Names Sarah Murphy as Account Executive

SEATTLE (November 20, 2009) – Frause, a Seattle-based full-spectrum communications firm, has announced the promotion of Sarah Murphy to account executive.

Murphy was hired in September 2007 as an assistant account executive. She graduated from the University of Tennessee in 2007 where she earned a Bachelor of Science in Communications.

“Sarah is a valuable member of our team. Her ambition and consistent hard work are exemplary of our company’s ethic.” said Bob Frause, CEO and Chairman of Frause. “Her excellent writing and communications skills have made Sarah a success in this industry.”

Murphy’s varied client list includes King County’s Natural Yard Care Neighborhoods, SkB Architects, the Wood Products Council, The Yoga Tree and the Water Supply Forum.
